Refugees and immigrants can be found all around the world. As the bishop of a border diocese, Bishop Kicanas understands the plight of immigrants who journey into his diocese seeking a better life only to live in the shadows for fear of deportation and separation from their loved ones. The Bishop will challenge the audience to become attuned to the cries of the poor around us and welcome the strangers in our midst.

“Only when we see suffering, pain and inequality and are moved by them, can change of attitude happen.”

The Sister Mary Schmidt Lecture Series is sponsored by the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill in collaboration with Seton Hill University.
