

ORDER FORM

The Lure of Providence

THE HISTORY OF THE CONGREGATION OF THE SISTERS OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE 1851-2012

"The Lure of Providence recounts the history of an international congregation of Sisters who have spent over a century and a half transcending boundaries of nation, culture, and ministry. Sister M. Christine Morkovsky brings these women to life and helps us to appreciate their rich legacies as benefactors of both Church and society. She has made a significant contribution to our understanding of modern religious life, in the United States and around the world."

- Margaret Susan Thompson, Syracuse University

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Sister Mary Christine Morkovsky, CDP, a native of San Antonio, Texas, professed vows as a Sister of Divine Providence of San Antonio, Texas in 1951. She earned MA and Ph.D. degrees in philosophy and an MA in religious studies from St. Louis University. Sr. Christine has been a teacher, administrator, researcher, lecturer, writer, and spiritual director.

Receive your copy of The Lure of Providence for a $25 contribution. Proceeds benefit the ministries and mission of the Sisters of Divine Providence.

Please send me _____ copies of The Lure of Providence.

Check here for Spanish version:

Name _____

Street Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Email _____

Make check payable to the Sisters of Divine Providence and mail to:

Mission Advancement
Sisters of Divine Providence
9000 Babcock Boulevard
Allison Park, PA 15101

Questions? Please contact Mission Advancement at 412-635-5437 or ndavis@cdpsisters.org.

cdpsisters.org