

You Are Invited to Reflect On

Working For A Future We Can Believe In

WHEN: Sunday, February 19 from 1:30-3:30 PM
(Doors will open at 1:00 PM)

WHERE: Sullivan Hall on Mt. Washington
(131 Bigham Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15211. Behind the former St. Mary of the Mount School which is on the corner of Grandview & Bigham Avenues.)

WHY: Because justice, compassion, equality, peace and truth are the core of the Gospel message in every place and time

WHAT: We will ask how faith guides our response to the era we live in? How do we listen to, affirm, support, and encourage one another when we experience profound uncertainty and challenging transition? What are our options for political, legislative, and social action in 2017? How do we ground ourselves in God's presence and a faith community?

There will be time for sharing, group discussions, and prayer
